Wallow

in our souls?

You crazy Canadian

you American you

any of you show me

how large love will be or far, the sound of him entering his charict. What?

" You wallow in your noises, cut off distances the magnitude of such brilliance you will not allow or carry above yourself the sound of the gate of his charict is air

any one one of us shines any two of us beacons

how far off into it is the only definition of the size of anything, call it something like a butterfly you crazy people

is possible.
