Five Poems

FRED WALL

Music at the Heart of Thinking One Thirty

- 1. The fulcrum of things
- 2. lengthened by narrative
- 3. thin line strung told
- 4. for example, season
- 5. and stone, twisted
- 6. words as roots, raked
- 7. "flax" the edge of prairie
- 8. and lake, shore lining
- 9. brim of dish spills the "I"
- 10. story's pushed surface
- 11 planar geography's lie
- 12. the way truth's worded
- 13. underneath horizon un-
- 14. parted sky unsung intent

Music at the Heart of Thinking One Three One

- 1. All ways come back to sky
- 2. cows dream the marsh
- 3. back to Winnipeg, salt
- 4. city to Gimli seven cells
- 5. of history one as a time
- 6. another document lost
- 7. a third lights a track, takes
- 8. forth into the body blood
- 9. and then no more smoke
- 10. six others, like wolves
- 11. so we need torches, pitch
- 12. burning difference finally
- 13. oats as thick as two bys
- 14. drums about your head

Music at the Heart of Thinking One Three Two

- Down past sliding home.
- 2. north south to circle story
- 3. artery of the sentence saying
- 4. turn, turn around the sun
- 5. frozen above the intersection
- 6. at noon, mertia of a hawk
- 7. then behind and beyond mind
- 8. annexed in anecdote nowhere
- 9. but the middle of south
- 10. that highway to its sun
- 11. or some reef from lake
- 12. to feathers the line of poem
- 13. pecking at the edge of map
- 14. home honed its fuel glowed

Music at the Heart of Thinking One Three Three

- And she would one day Dad had been told
- 2. I guess the biggest Loki said tore that birch
- 3. from an edge of ice scaled the pickerel badly
- 4. but it was too late I was on my way now the
- 5. rhythm apart from stars we were tired and
- 6. we met talking on the stoop those geese too
- 7. and their morning ruckus scoop to dream
- 8. I'm now an empty blue sky I took that picture
- 9. willows yellowed in the October morning
- 10. but I didn't go back there on the other side
- 11. of the field she said the net that cows become
- 12. frozen in the night sky the shape of raw spring
- 13. creeks knowing that this happens over and
- 14. objects can be anyplace like this ash beside me

Music at the Heart of Thinking One Three Four

- 1. The plateau of the poem.
- 2. pulling a story from a fire
- 3. smouldering under foot
- 4 on a periphery of words
- 5. as things while sentenced
- 6. to a periphery of counting
- 7. so nearly uncontained (it)
- 8. documents no geography
- 9. nor memory the windmill
- 10. street and all that walks
- 11. or reminds crankshaft, smoke
- 12. sits at the corner cheering
- 13. past the end of telling you
- 14. can smell stones burning

144