Don't Cut Me Down

I don't want any of this tree poetry shit from you. You don't know what a fuckin tree is. If ya think its only in yer head yer full a shit. Trees is trees and the only thing they're good for is lumber so don't give me any crap about them bein sumpin else. Fer chrys sake you think the rest of us don't know sweet fuck all compared to you. Well you don't know nuthin till ya go out there and bust yer back on em. Settin chokers'd break yer ass so fast ya wouldn't even wanna look at a goddamned tree let alone write about em. Then ya'd know what a tree wuz, steda yappin about it.

*Fred Wah
Spring, 1972*

this is a hard language to work out the images keep interrupting the talking trees keep being pictures of themselves my words keep meaning pictures of words meaning tree
and its not easy
to find myself in the picture except there is a strange familiarity I remember something which is not a dream and surely it isn't only in the mind when I step out into the forest even think it
not before
there is a distinct signal of a condition or presence I and the trees are there in tune with it
call it a quietness
I see trees around me
or I am looking at a tree
the actual shape of such appearances are home
and I fall into them in a flash I recognize it now as Love that's what goes on

*Fred Wah
Spring, 1972*

Tree of colored textured brain bathed in twisted neural headlights twined trunk of cedar bark all shaggy woman man tree
underpits which root me to the image like a root is moving through the darkness of the soil nerves and soul (like baling wire a line of thought
taut shoots in screaming hot blood leaps of pool pool pool
of a tree
soft flow of dancer slowing air O dream of tree
you dream of me
O branch of itself you are a synapse
of that line
and think me
clear brain loops
the turning rings of yourself are of me
our tissues cross
I always hoped you'd give me heart rings in your dream
dear birch across from me we face the quiet pool of ourselves face each other
return
we
look that way

Poem for Turning

Move down zigzag
through switchback
through sideways
move down there
move side right
move left
keep right angles
head front-wise
cleft earth hold
the fall-line
fall to trees
keep incline
be degrees
go corner
move side move
jut out

in boots road pick-up sidewise wide three ruts wheel ridge grass switch eyes move in boots

in
heel
knee
cut side-hill
ditch run-off
move down
ricochet track
line shove
spin out fall
back fall side
saw the forest
clear the creek rock
split the sky
open roll dig
cover burn
fill the fill
and cross the bridge
turn up
turn into turn
at it
