

LONGHOUSE — A TABLOID OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS — NO.1

Turtle canoe

Baby portage

September spawn
fish weirs everywhere
all through the narrows.

Upstream, upstream.

A feast for all of us
cousins and old friends everybody dancing like crazy, eh?

Northeast

(from family, a few friends)

I turned

since I had accompanied my father that far

what was in the world around here became larger

some part of it

then all of it

FRED WAH - 3 TRANS.

I would love it if the fire broke them, but I would also love to have a complete bottle. All I would do is wash the dirt off.

That is just like a haircut. Come to think of it I went with my shovel just after getting a haircut.

Do you see why that is just like a haircut. I hope you do. I would love it if you do.

I was going to write this country I love.

You can write with a pen with purple ink.

You can write with a shovel.

You cant write with a blueprint for restoring Fort Dream. No you cant.

I love earthquakes & I love peonies but I can never learn to live with stakes to hold them up.

With crutches for my grand-dad but not stakes for the flowers.

I can agree with that. But only me.

□ GEORGE BOWERING

Notes: There is no fixed subscription rate for this paper, as yet. It has been entirely paid for by small donations. If you want the paper, ask. If you want to help with the cost, donate what you can. Send in your essays, book reviews, books for review (Books Received lists next issue), poems, short stories, editorials, et al. All can be returned upon request. The paper cannot exist without the support of the readers. Another issue will be ready as soon as the funds for printing have accumulated. hopefully late summer.

Fred Wah's 3 trans. courtesy: PICTOGRAMS FROM THE INTERIOR OF B.C. available from Talonbooks, Vancouver, B.C.

LONGHOUSE - published & edited by Wm Scharf, 108 Ranch, 100 Mile House B.C. VOK-2E0 Canada. Copyright to authors. Spring 1976

41/100